CHAPTER 3 DOWN AT THE DOCK

Before you read

Discuss:

1. What are your favourite summer time activities?
2. Make a to-do list of activities at home, outside, on a trip, at the seaside, in the mountains, in a city, in the country, at your grandparents', at your friends', at the camp.
3. What did you do last summer holidays?

While you read

Find the activities of children on Bermuda:

(Clue: swim for fun, jump, dive, swing on the rope, swing out on that, sail, stop at a friend's house, drink a cup of coffee, lie on a deck, sit and fish, look at the sea, swim under the water with a mask and flippers.)

Which activities have you ever done? and where?

After you read

1. Revise modal verbs : can- could, must and have to Give examples of modals and summer activities e.g. I could dive in the sea.

2. Revise past tense of irregular verbs and regular verbs

Make a list with summer activities and write past tenses

3. Adverbs

Write adverbs used in the page 27-28.

Translate them.

huffily, triumphantly, finally, usually, guiltily, heavily, surely, irritably, spookily, p.29
suddenly

Mention other adverbs: luckily, unfortunately, happily, truly, gently, sensibly, luckily, lonely etc.

Which adverbs have the same form with adjectives?

back, deep, early, far, fast, hard, high, late, little, long, low, near, right, shot, straight, well, wrong

Be careful of different meaning: deeply, hardly, highly, nearly, pretty difficult, rightly-correctly.

4. Tell a story

(which starts in the page 28)

A scrabbling noise once frightened me though. I had just got into bed when I heard something scratching

(100- 130 words, use modals, past tense of verbs, past perfect, past continuous and past simple, adverbs)
